number of foreign tourists who visited India during last five years are as follows:

Year	Foreign tourist Arrivals	%Change
1993	1764830	--
1994	1886433	6.9
1995	2123683	12.6
1996	2287860	7.7
1997	2374094	3.8

The international tourist arrivals in the country registered positive growth during each of the last five years.

(c) to (e) There is a perception in overseas markets that India is outpriced due to high rates of published tariffs in some of the hotels at Mumbai and Delhi. The prices in India for all other facilities availed by the tourists including internal transportation, restaurants, shopping, entry fee in tourist places, etc. are reasonable. However, no formal study nas been conducted in this regard.

Buddhist Tourist Circuit Train

1232. SHRI VEDPRAKASH P. GOYAL: Will the Minister of TOURISM be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the Buddhist tourist circuit train organised by ITDC has not been successful during the inaugural run;

(b) if so, the reasons therefor;

(c) whether Government have any plan to make the tour more entertaining; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF TOURISM (SHRI OMAK APANG): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. It is true that the operation of the train has not been successful in the initial stages because the awareness about its operation has not reached the travel agents, tour operators and the intending users in India and abroad in full measure

(c) and (d) The Baudh Parikrama Train is supposed to provide a pilgrimage journey. The train journey is during the nights. The sightseeing tours are part of the day journeys in the pilgrimage package of Buddhist shrines.
